VENDOR FAQ'S

PLEASE NOTE

Only approved Vendors are permitted to sell/sample products and distribute information (in their Booth area) at the Kittery Block Party.

Those individuals 'soliciting' information and products (sampling, handing out flyers, political campaigns, etc.) without the KBP Vendor Permit for an approved space will be asked to leave the event footprint out of respect for those who have complied with the application process.

WHEN IS KBP 2018?

KBP 2018 will be held on Saturday, June 16th. The Party runs from 10:00am-4:00pm.

How can I apply for a Booth space?

If you are an individual/group who has participated in the past, and are in "good standing", you are welcome to return, and, should automatically receive an application packet. New applicants can download the application.

Is the KBP a juried event?

No. All applications, product descriptions/pictures and reviewed by a committee. They determine the number of applicants who are included based on quality of products, category limits and appropriate messages for/at the event.

Do you allow raffles?

We allow non-profits to include raffles as part of their KBP Booth.

How much does a Booth Space cost?

Cost is based on type of business. All cost categories are noted on the Application.

Can I 'share' a Booth?

Yes. We request that you include both participants' names, items on the application. If one of the participants is selling/sampling food, they must comply with the Health Permit procedure. Only one parking permit will be granted per "space".

When is the deadline for applying?

Late fees will apply after May 11. However, some categories may be closed based on numbers.

Do you provide staffing assistance for set up/break down of booths?

The quick answer is no. Although in the past, there have been volunteers from various organizations on hand to assist. These volunteers are not counted on every year.

What is included in the Booth Space fee?

We allocate at 10' x 10' space for you. Individuals/groups are responsible for tables, chairs, tents, etc.

Is there a rain date?

No. Due to the size, scope and impact of the event, we go rain or shine.
